PASTORAL VISITATION - 14th-15th June 2025

On Sunday 14th-15th June the people of the Cluster of Blessed Peter Wright will have a Pastoral Visitation by the Rt Rev Dr David James Oakley, Bishop of Northampton.

Bishop David will visit the two Catholic parish churches of the Most Holy Name of Jesus, Oundle and of St Paul the Apostle, Thrapston with the chapel of St Thomas More, Raunds.

Many of you might ask: "What is a Pastoral Visitation?" It is a way for a Bishop to come into personal contact with the clergy and especially with the many people responsible for various areas of the pastoral life of the parish. Through this visit the bishop becomes acquainted with the reality of the environment, the socio-economic condition of the people, the current pastoral programs, and the overall functioning of the parish. It is a time of grace for the entire Catholic community of the area, whose chief pastor visits to bring encouragement and hope to those involved in pastoral work and to all the people of the parish. He will celebrate the Eucharist, proclaim the Word of God and preach the wonders of our wonderful Catholic faith. The bishop visits a parish, which is not a building but rather the people who make it. He will make known the pastoral priorities of the whole diocese and will foster a sense of belonging to the diocesan Church, which is the Local Church of Northampton.

EASTER GIFT TO YOUR PRIEST

A big and warm thank you to all, who will generously make your Easter donation to Fr Benedetto. The purple envelopes are out if you'd like to use one.

The collections at Easter will serve, as per tradition in our country, as part of our priest's allowance. Thank you for your generosity!

The collection on Good Friday will be for the Holy Land.

HOLY COMMUNION

A reminder about when to approach the altar for the reception of Holy Communion. Once the priest has drunk the Most Precious Blood from the chalice and the bell is rung, please start making your way to the altar (sanctuary). This will make communion swifter and will show our spiritual willingness that we truly desire to be fed by Christ.

Bishop's Easter Message Calls the Diocese to New Life in the Spirit

Hello, dear friends, dear brothers and sisters in Christ, and greetings to you from the garden here at Bishop's House, Northampton.

Well, it's spring here, and this garden is once again beginning to show signs of new life after a long, dark, wet winter. I don't know about you, but I am delighted every time we experience spring. It lifts the heart, doesn't it? It shows us the new life that nature has in store for us once again. And Lent is a time of grace—its very name suggests spring: the lengthening of days and the promise of new life.

In this Easter message, I want to focus on the reality of the life of the resurrected Christ in our lives as His disciples.

We know and believe that, in truth, God raised His beloved Son Jesus from the tomb—from death to new, resurrected life. Not just resuscitation, but a new kind of life in a wonderful way. And we are invited to share in it.

It's very easy for us to reduce Easter to a historical fact. But in truth, Easter is a present reality in our lives—something we participate in through baptism.

I often reflect on what it means to be baptized, especially when I celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation. Those who are to be confirmed renew their baptismal promises, and so they are immersed into Christ and brought into a new relationship with our Triune God.

We are made participants in the Church's mission. Baptism is the gateway to life in the Holy Spirit—that's what the Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us so clearly and emphatically.

As we prepare to renew our baptismal promises during the Easter Sunday Masses, I invite you to think deeply about what this truly means. What does it mean to be baptized into Christ's dying and rising—here and now, in our own lives and in our wonderful Diocese of Northampton?

I want to encourage you to consider taking part in the Life in the Spirit seminars. You may think, "That's not for me," but these seminars are based on an ancient model called the Kerygma—the proclamation made by St. Peter on that first Pentecost morning. It is the proclamation made by great saints such as Ignatius of Loyola throughout the centuries:

That we are created in God's image and likeness;
That although we have fallen because of sin, God has promised us new life—salvation in His own Son, Jesus, the incarnate Word made flesh;
That through Jesus' dying and rising, we are raised to new life;
And that, through the Church, we look forward to the day when Jesus will come again in glory.

This is the Kerygma—and it is meant to work its way through our lives as disciples, so that we are convicted of the truths of our faith. So why not give it a try? Do look online on the diocesan website and in other places to find details of how you can take part in the Life in the Spirit seminars.

If baptism is the gateway to life in the Spirit, then this Easter, make a commitment—to yourself and to our Risen Saviour—that you will take this seriously. Do what you can to live as joy-filled disciples.

And in this Holy Year, when we see ourselves as pilgrims of hope, know that the hope you carry in your heart—the hope of being closer to Jesus—is real. It can be taken into your life and made a reality as you seek to walk with Christ, day by day.
